Luke, five-year-old son of A. M. Swango, died of flux on the 16th inst.

Born—On the 12th inst., to the wife of Wiley Perkins, a girl—Rosa Lee.

Buy your saddlery, paints, oil, window glass, nails, etc., of Caskey & Pieratt.

The lamps for the Presbyterian church at this place have been received and are being put in position.

Several of our citizens attended the Annual Meeting at Bethsalem last Sunday, and all seem well pleased with their trip.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other stock. No cure no pay. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

J. N. Chambers, of Stillwater, called at our office on Monday, and reports flux raging to a fearful extent in his neighborhood.

Rev. John R. Kendall, who succeeds Rev. W. L. Stamper in charge of the M. E. Church, South, of this circuit, is said to be a fine preacher.

Died—On the 15th inst., of cholera infantum, Maud Prater, aged 14 months, daughter of John and Mary Prater, of Red River, Morgan county.

Rev. H. H. Little will preach the funeral of Howard Kash at the Christian church in our town on the second Sunday in October at 3 o'clock p. m.

Breen's Liniment is pronounced by all who have used it to be the greatest remedy for rheumatism, sprains, cuts, bruises, etc. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

J. S. Clark has rented the property of H. F. Pieratt and will move to Hazel Green as soon as the building is completed which will be in about two weeks.

Capt. B. E. Roberts desires to say to his friends and customers, through THE HERALD, that sickness in his family is the cause of his delay in visiting this section.

Breen's Liniment is certainly the best combination of remedies for corns, neuralgia, pain in the back and side, etc., ever produced. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Greenville Ward has finished burning his brick-kin, and now the people of Hazel Green and vicinity can be supplied with good brick at reasonable rates. Give him a call.

Walls & Chambers, of Stillwater, report to us that they have threshed over 3,000 bushels of wheat up to Monday. They say wheat is much better than people expect.

Revs. W. P. Taulbee and John Bays, of Magoffin county, will preach the funeral services of Boyd Nickel, Bassom and Maud Prater near W. R. Davis's, on Red River, next Sunday.

Dr. Guerrant and his co-workers began a meeting at Beginning Branch on Middle Park, Breathitt county, on Monday, Sept. 14. The congregations were large and much interest was manifested by the whole community.

Loet—On Sept. 4th, a Shepherd slut, black with a white ring around her neck, and answers to the name of "Ponto," for information leading to her recovery will be liberally rewarded by Jas. H. Brown, Hazel Green, Ky.

John Thomas, living near here, says that polk berries are a sure cure for bloody flux. He had two children down with the disease, and gave them polk berries with the result above stated. It is a simple remedy, and as this disease is prevalent it would be well to try it.

J. T. & F. Day, of this place, are just now receiving the finest stock of fall and winter goods ever displayed in the mountains, consisting of everything the heart can wish or possibly demand. The stock was bought low down for cash, and they propose to give their customers the benefit of it by selling it in the same way.

The stock sales passed off quietly last Wednesday with but little stock on the market. There was no demand for cattle, mules sold at fair prices; horses dull. J. H. Pieratt, auctioneer, reports the following sales: 5 mules $500; 1 mule $80; 1 mule $65; 1 mule colt $30; 3 heifers $45; 1 heifer $10; 1 heifer $8.75; 2 yoke cattle $100; 2 sows and pigs $25; 1 yoke cattle $75.

We ask special attention to our new "Matchless Pencils." These pencils, which are very low in price, are, we claim, equal in quality for all business purposes to any pencil in the market, not excepting those of the highest cost. They excel particularly in absence of grit and strength of lead. Send for price list. Jansen, McClurg & Co., Wash. and Madison St., Chicago.

Willie F. Wallace, son of W. J. and M. S. Wallace, died of flux on the 16th inst., aged 13 years. Ida Lee, aged seven years, sister of the deceased, is not expected to live—same disease. Mr. Wallace lives on Stillwater, this county, and formerly lived in Tazewell county, Virginia. LATER—Since the above was set in type we have received information that the little girl died on Friday evening.

The high school building committee at this place have employed J. S. Clark, of West Liberty, to erect the building, and he began work last Monday morning. Mr. Clark is well known in this vicinity, and has a wide-spread reputation as a framer and builder. He has just completed his contract for the Presbyterian church at Jackson, and came to this place last Saturday, accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Sentinel-Democrat: Kelly Day, son of J. Taylor Day, of Hazel Green, was here this week, and he is the finest specimen of young manhood we ever saw. He is 15 years of age last Thursday (Sept. 10). He is six feet high—just as tall as his father—weighs about 200 pounds, is symmetrically formed, muscular and no surplus flesh. Should he continue to grow, as he usually does, he will be a great man physically.

Rev. F. B. Converse, who has been in Breathitt county laboring for the Presbyterian Church, for several days, was the guest of the family of Col. R. J. Samuel, of this place, last Wednesday night, on route to his home in Louisville.

Dr. J. C. Darby, of Lexington, who has been sojourning in our town during the last two weeks, drinking the famous Swango water, departed for home Friday morning much improved in health and as active as a school boy.

Mr. B. F. Holmes and family, of New York, who have been visiting relatives in this county for several weeks, left for their home last Thursday morning.

John E. Patrick, of Jackson, was in town last week en route home from Louisville whither he had been on business.

Capt. J. M. Beatty, of the Soldiers' Friend, at the Pleasant House last week, paid our sanctum a friendly visit.

Mrs. David Morse has been quite ill for several days, but we are glad to see her out again.

The Editor is in Cincinnati this week, on business connected with THE HERALD.

John T. Coons, of Campton, was registered at the Pleasant House last week.

Mrs. J. S. Clark and sister left Monday for their home in West Liberty.

Misses Luffie and Lena Beatty, of Beattyville, are visiting in Hazel Green.

Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson was taken seriously ill on Tuesday morning.

J. T. Day and son, Kelly, returned from Louisville last week.

Dr. H. O. Cessie left Hazel Green on Sunday for Frenchburg.

H. H. Wilson, of Breathitt county, was in town Monday.

A. F. Lyon, of Rousseau, was in town yesterday.

The Yearly Meeting at Hazel Green.

When the services at Beginning Branch are closed many of the officers of these churches will doubtless visit Hazel Green to attend the Yearly Meeting, which will commence on Friday, Sept. 25. Several of the most prominent ministers in Kentucky have been invited to take part in it. At the time of this writing it is not certainly known who of them will be present. The following is the programme, subject to such changes as may be desirable:

The Great What Is It.

John Lewis, the greatest prestidigitator, contortionist, acrobat, athlete, banjoist, gymnast and gynaecologist, gave an exhibition here on Saturday night last, and before the performance treated the citizens to a street pageant unsurpassed in the annals of history—ancient or modern. We have read something of the carnival of Rome, and witnessed a Mardi Gras celebration at Memphis, read the Bible story of the march of the Israelites out of Egypt, participated in the esqui-centennial celebration at Baltimore, cried over the charge of the gallant six hundred, admired the animals in zoological gardens and laughed at the eccentricities of the monkeys, but the princely paraphernalia of the plumed pageant that promenade our streets on Saturday evening last took the bakery with all fixtures and appurtenances thereto belonging—in the language of a former citizen "It was a school of a circumstance."

The Annual Meeting.

The Annual Meeting of the Christian Church, of Morgan and Magoffin counties, met at Bethsalem church, in Morgan county, on Friday and continued over Sunday. On Sunday a representative of THE HERALD attended the meeting and found that in the crowd of hundreds of people from different parts of the country, the best of order prevailed, and while some of the boys had taken a little of the "critter" none were noisy, and everybody was as happy as a lark. Rev. W. L. Lacy was appointed evangelist for the counties of Morgan and Magoffin for the coming year. The good people of the neighborhood had made preparation to entertain the congregation, and the dinner on the ground Sunday was a bountiful repast, and verified the saying: "If you want good eating just attend the Annual Meeting." The meeting closed Sunday evening and everybody went on their way rejoicing.

Kentucky Conference.

The Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, held at Versailles, adjourned in the 14th inst. The following is the list of appointments for the Irvine District:

Presiding Elder—D. G. B. Demaree.

Irvine—C. E. Boswell.

Landon—E. G. Gifford.

Berthouville—R. E. Bell, supplied.

Crab Orchard—F. T. Johns, supplied.

West Liberty—W. B. Ragan.

Campton—G. G. Ragan.

Jackson—John J. Dickey and J. P. Lockhart.

Stanton—Steven N. Corrier.

Whitesburg—M. P. Morgan.

Mt. Pleasant—G. B. Kendall.

Hazel Green—John R. Kendall.

Morehead—R. L. F. Hurt.

Frenchburg—Wm. Derriekson.

Look Here.

Read this, please—We have carried slow customers until we are loaded down, and it is impossible to continue to credit those whose notes and accounts are past due. We must have pay from you, and will take live stock at its value on notes and accounts. Do not call for credit, even if you are poor, if you are owing us you have not settled. We mean what we say. J. T. & F. Day.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY

Reported by Special Correspondents from All Points in the Mountains.

WOLFE COUNTY.

GILLMORE, Sept. 19.—Well, Miss "Gurkey," we will have to apologize to you for our boldness and manner of addressing you, for we only supposed you to be some young gentleman of Cedar Bluff, and thought we would get up a conversation and have some fun jasting with you, but we understand you are a daughter of one of our old schoolmates, so we hope you did not get offended, and will accept our thanks for the information you gave us—in answer to our inquiries. Please write to THE HERALD every week, and give us all the news from the Old Dominion.

"Uncle Benny" Watkins, as he is commonly called, is the oldest person in this vicinity, being almost 88 years old. He tells us that his health and bodily strength is very good, for one of his age.

Mrs. E. W. Minton has a double cymbling, grown this year. Each part is exactly the same size, and grown fast together from stem to blossom end.

Smith Adams, the gauger, is visiting the distilleries throughout the county.

We have whooping cough in this vicinity.

UNCLE REMUS.

P. S.—Since writing the above our mind has wandered back to the great and noted battle of Winchester, Va., which was fought Sept. 19, 1864—just 21 years ago today—in which we participated under Gen. Jubal Early, who commanded the Confederate forces. This was a day long to be remembered. We belonged to the 23d Virginia battalion, which numbered 301 men on that morning and three days later was re-organized with 30 men, and was commanded by John W. Sweeney, now living on Back creek, Wolfe county, Ky., who was then 2nd Sergeant. All the balance of the battalion were killed or captured. Many changes have taken place since then. Oh, how sad to think about the many lives that were lost for naught.

U. R.

MORGAN COUNTY.

MAYTOWN, Sept. 19.—W. J. Lawson and his mother have just returned from Virginia, where they have been for six weeks. Uncle Bill has got a bright smile on his face since Aunt Huldah got home.

Died—On the 15th inst., Pearcey Emerson, little son of E. B. May. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their affliction.

W. T. Day has gone to the upper counties to summon witnesses in the A. L. Little case, which comes up in October, at Louisville, Ky.

Rev. W. L. Stamper went to Frenchburg this morning to assist in the funeral of James Arantage.

Mrs. J. F. Hill, who has been down with fever, is improving.

John Cox, of Red River, was in town this morning on business.

There is a great deal of sickness in this neighborhood.

LICK SKILLET.

MENIFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG, Sept. 18.—We see it suggested to attach Rowan county to Judge Cooper's Judicial District. Let it be done by all means. Also Knott, Letcher, Bell and any other bad counties, if they should be in the Jackson Purchase. "Breathitt's courts could not be held until she was added to the 13th District, and Judges Riddell and Cooper have held the courts there with a little trouble as elsewhere. Besides Judge Cooper has nothing to do in his own district.

Rev. H. R. Coleman lectured at the court-house on Wednesday night, to the Masonic Fraternity, on his travels in the Holy Land.

G. W. Poplin waived examination of the charge of counterfeiting, against him at Lexington, executed bond and has returned home.

Died—Of consumption, Mrs. Frank Ballard.

TOOT.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

AARON'S RUN, Sept. 9.—Died—At the residence of W. M. Henry, of this place, Mrs. Sarah Christian—after an illness of four weeks—aged about 71 years. Thus has passed away, in a good old age, this saintly mother in Israel. She has been known to this community for many years as a devoted Christian—one whose faith in God manifested itself in a life of good works. Her funeral was preached this morning by Rev. McElroy, of Mt. Sterling, after which her remains were buried in the family graveyard on the Col. Henry farm; there to await the resurrection.

The new school-house at this place is completed. Last Monday there was quite a number of new scholars in attendance.

Miss Kate Amyx, Peter and Robert Goodpaster and your correspondent attended the fair at Paris last Thursday.

Mrs. Hugh McDonald and daughters, Sallie and Julie, are visiting relatives at Lexington.

John James and little daughter, Lillie, who have been very sick of dux, are convalescing.

MAY.

Bath Again Bathed in Blood.

[Sentinel-Democrat.]

In Owingville last Tuesday the jury in the case of A. J. Ballard for murder of Peter Spenser, brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the punishment at imprisonment for life; and the jailer, with guards, removed the prisoner from the Court-house to the jail, and just as they arrived at the jail door, Moses Ballard, a brother of the prisoner, rushed up, and showing the guards aside, told his brother Jack to run, which he did. Mose, with pistol in hand, said he would shoot the first man to attempt to follow Jack, and about the same time he fired his pistol in the air. The guards then fired on him with fatal effect. In the meantime James Ballard, another brother, came upon the scene and began firing at the guards, when the latter shot and killed him also. Each were shot a number of times. While this was going on Jack was running and got half a mile from the jail before he was captured and brought back to prison. Mose and Jim Ballard were between 30 and 40 years of age and had families.

Lightning Rods.

Five hundred dollars reward will be paid for any building struck by lightning that is rodless in a scientific manner with our rods.

W. P. STAGGS & CO.

To the Tax-Payers of Wolfe County.

Knowing that money has been scarce with my fellow-citizens, and wishing to do with them as I would be done by, I have not asked them to pay their taxes for 1885, but I must settle with the court of claims on the first Tuesday in October, and must have the money to settle with. The time allowed for me to collect and make settlement with the Auditor, is also short. To meet both payments I must have the money, and have it now! I make this announcement to give you notice to be ready when I call, and you who are now reading it may be called upon to-morrow, so get ready and pay your taxes. I have certainly given you more time than any former Sheriff, and you should show your appreciation of my leniency by paying up on the first call. Very truly yours, G. T. CENTER, Sheriff Wolfe county.

Caywood vs. Commonwealth.

In the case of Caywood vs. Commonwealth, appealed from Wolfe circuit court, the opinion of the Court of Appeals by Judge Pryor, reversing, is as follows:

"While one who has caused the death of another by administering poison may be guilty of manslaughter, although he was ignorant of the poisonous character of the drug he was administering, yet in order to authorize a conviction in such a state of case it must appear that he was giving the drug with a wicked or evil purpose."

"The Court erred in this case in instructing the jury that they could find the defendant guilty of manslaughter if he was ignorant of the poisonous character of the drug he was administering."

John E. Cooper for appellant; P. W. Hardin for appellee.

For the past two weeks Rev. E. O. Guerrant has been holding meetings in Breathitt county. Rev. W. B. Cooper is in charge of the work of the Presbyterian church there, and Rev. E. P. Mickel was present as organist and assistant preacher.

The first week a church of 69 members was organized and $682 raised towards building a church on Froze. Sunday, the 20th another church of 115 members was organized and $621 raised towards building a house of worship on Middle Fork. So instead of having no church building, Breathitt county will soon have three comfortable Presbyterian churches.

Rev. W. L. Stamper has been sent to Vanceburg this year by the M. E. Church conference recently held at Versailles. It will be remembered that THE HERALD predicted, that should he be heard by any congregation more able to pay him a good salary than the people of this circuit, he would get an appointment worthy his worth as an orator and a minister. Our prediction has in a measure been verified. Bro. Stamper writes that the salary will be between $600 and $800 per year.

We call special attention to our new "Matchless pens." These remarkable pens combine the elasticity and freedom of a gold pen, with the quickness of action of steel pens. They are the best pens made for all work where a smooth point and perfect elasticity are required, and will last as long as two or three ordinary steel pens. Send for samples and price list. Jansen, McClurg & Co., Wabash Ave. and Madison St., Chicago. Wholesale and retail at this office.

W. C. Kendall, county clerk of Morgan county, was domiciled at the Day house Monday and Tuesday on his return home after a twenty days trip in the counties south and east of here. "Pomp" is a candidate for door keeper of the lower house of the Kentucky Legislature, and speaks encouragingly of his prospects. We would be glad to see him win the prize as he deserves success.

Dr. Geo. W. Moore, of Frenchburg, is not only building up the finest practice of any physician in the mountains, but is gaining a reputation as a hotel keeper second to no enter in the land. He is a clever little gentleman and deserves all the success he has attained. Stop with him when you go his way, and if sick let him prescribe for you.

Major R. C. Wingate, of New York, registered at the Day house Monday. He represents a company of Eastern capitalists desirous of investing in land in the counties of Wolfe, Breathitt, Morgan and Magoffin, and is seeking to purchase direct from bona fide owners rather than to deal in defunct, encumbered old surveys such as Roberts, &c.

The Annual Meeting of the Christian church, of this county, will convene at antioch, near the Kentucky River, next Friday, and continue in session until Sunday afternoon. No more hospitable people live than the people of that vicinity, and we bespeak a pleasant gathering and good time for the immense concourse which will be there.

Green T. and William Little, of Texas, arrived on the lack Wednesday on a visit to this, their former home, and the warm greeting they received bespoke the kind feelings our people have for them. They are at the old homestead, the guest of their mother, "Aunt Lotty," and will return to the Lone Star State in a few days.

Joe Coburn, a son of George Coburn, living near Frenchburg, in Menifee county, fell from a bush last Sunday evening, and broke the ulnar bone of his left arm, inflicting a green stick fracture. Dr. Moore, of that place, set the limb, and the patient was doing well at last accounts.

The Quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church, South, closed at Frenchburg on Sunday last. Revs. Demaree, Ragan and Stamper preached. Bro. Stamper delivered an eloquent sermon on Sunday night to a large congregation.

Dr. H. O. Cessie, who has been doing some very elegant dental work here, is now at Frenchburg, and will go from there to Campton. To all who need his services we will say that his work is first-class and his charges reasonable.

Menifee circuit court is in session at Frenchburg this week. The case of the Commonwealth vs. Wm. Osborne, for the killing of Henry Thomas, several years ago, comes up.

Miss Laura Ponder, of Frenchburg, a very interesting and accomplished young lady, is quite sick with fever, but under the skillful treatment of Dr. Moore, is improving.

A two-year-old child of Wm. Ingram, at Frenchburg, is very low with a complication of diseases. Dr. Moore is attending him and hopes to pull him through.

Dr. Moore, of Frenchburg, will take subscriptions for THE HERALD, and will receive pay in chickens, corn, or anything of the kind.
